

CREED 2nd Anniversary

Inspire & Empower: Cultivating Human Dignity,
Equality and Equity

CREED

The Coalition for Racial & Ethnic Equity in Development (CREED) is a collective of global development organizations based in the United States committed to building racial and ethnic equity (REE). We pledge to advance racial and ethnic diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging within our own organizations' policies, systems and culture in keeping with attainable and measurable goals; and work to instill REE in international development.
